

PSALM 19
 To the chief Musician,
 A Psalm of David

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;
 4 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul:

1 and the firmament sheweth his handywork,
 5 which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chambers,
 7 the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto
 5 and rejoiceth as a strong man to 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:
 night sheweth knowledge,
 strong man to run a race.
 right, rejoicing the heart:

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.
 6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
 8 the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

PSALM 19 (page three)

10 More to be desired are they ——— than gold, yea, than much fine gold:
13 Keep back thy ser- ——— vant also from pre- sumptu- ous sins;

10 sweeter also ——— than ho- — ney and the honeycomb.
13 let them not have ——— do- min- — ion o- — ver me:

11 Moreover by ——— them is thy ser- vant warned:
13 then ——— shall — I be up- right,

11 and in keeping ——— of them there is great re- ward.
13 and I shall ——— be innocent from the great trans- gression.

PSALM 19 (page four)

12 Who can ———— under ———— stand his errors?
 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be ac — ceptable ———— in thy ———— sight,

12 cleanse ———— thou me from se — cret faults.
 14 O Lord, ———— my strength, and my re — deemer.
