1 The transgression of the — wick — ed saith with — in my heart,
3 The words of his — mouth are in — iqui — ty and de — ceit:

1 that there is no — fear of God be — fore his eyes.
3 he hath left — off to be wise, and to do — good.

2 For he — flattereth him — self in his own — eyes,
4 He de — vis — eth mischief up — on his bed;

2 un — til his in — iqui — ty be found to be hateful.
4 he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he ab — horreth not evil.
