

PSALM 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

adapted from the
Welsh hymn melody,
'Arfon'

1 LORD, thou hast been ————— our dwelling place in all gen-er-ations.
4 For a thou ————— sand years in thy ————— sight
7 For we are ————— con-sumed by thine ————— anger,
10 The days of our years ————— are three ————— score years and ten;

2 Before ————— the moun-tains were brought forth,
4 are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch — in the night.
7 and by ————— thy wrath ————— are we troubled.
10 and if by reason ————— of strength they-be four ————— score years,

2 or ever thou ————— hadst formed the earth and the world,
5 Thou carriest them ————— a ————— way as with a flood;
8 Thou ————— hast set our i-niquities be-fore thee,
10 yet is ————— their strength ————— labour and sorrow;

2 even from everlasting to ————— ev-er ————— last ————— ing, thou art God.
5 they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like grass which grow ————— eth up.
8 our ————— se-cret sins in the light of thy counte-nance.
10 for it is ————— soon cut off, and we fly a ————— way.

PSALM 90 (continued)

3 Thou ———— turn — est man to de — struction;
 6 In the morning ———— it flourish-eth, and grow — eth up;
 9 For all our days ———— are passed a — way in thy wrath:
 11 Who knoweth ———— the power of thine ———— anger?

3 and sayest, ———— Re — turn, ye children of men.
 6 in the evening ———— it is cut down, and withereth.
 9 we spend ———— our years as a tale — that is told.
 11 even according to ———— thy fear, ———— so is thy — wrath.
